

ANTI-RACISM RESOURCES

The Massillon Public Library values diversity, empathy, and justice. We have prepared this list of resources to assist our patrons in learning about the history of racism in America, how racial issues affect us today, and how we can move forward as a more equal and unified community. If you have any questions, or if you would like additional recommendations, please contact the Reference Desk at 330-832-9831, ext. 312.
